DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-13, drawn to a plant growth regulator, classified in class 47, subclass 48.5.
 - II. Claims 14 & 15, drawn to a method of producing a plant growth regulator, classified in class 504, subclass 116.1.
 - III. Claim 16, drawn to a method of dwarfing a young plant, classified in class 504, subclass 174.
 - IV. Claim 17, drawn to a dwarfing plant, classified in class PLT, subclass 395.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process. For example, the plant regulator as claimed in the apparatus claim only contains cinnamic acid, thus the process would be providing cinnamic acid and not necessary mixing the cinnamic acid with an aqueous medium as claimed by the process claim.

Art Unit: 3643

3. Inventions I and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different effects. For example, invention III is for stunting the growth of a young plant to make the plant into a dwarf plant. Invention I can be for regulating the growth of a young plant into adult size and not necessary decrease in size of the young plant into a dwarf plant.

4. Inventions I and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different effects. For example, invention I is for regulating the growth of a young plant but invention IV is producing an actual dwarfing plant.

5. Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different effects. For example, invention II is producing the plant growth regulator by mixing it with an aqueous medium to produce the composition, while invention III is dwarfing a young plant to stunt its growth.

6. Inventions II and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different effects. For example, invention II is producing the plant growth regulator by mixing it with an aqueous medium to produce the composition, while invention IV is producing an actual dwarfing plant.

7. Inventions III and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different effects. For example, invention III pertains to is dwarfing a young plant to stunt its growth, while invention IV is the actual producing of a dwarf plant.

8. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

9. A telephone call was made to Applicant's representative, Mr. Roland Martin, on 12/20/04 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

10. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
